CM Dhami, BJP leaders pay tribute to Deendayal Upadhyaya on 109th birth anniversary

AGENCY
DEHRADUN, SEPT 25

Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami, along with BJP National General Secretary (Organisation) B.L. Santhosh, paid tribute to Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya on his 109th birth anniversary in Dehradun on Thursday.

The Chief Minister garlanded a statue of Deendayal Upadhyaya at Gandhi Road in the city. Later, Dhami also paid floral tributes at Deendayal Park and honoured his memory at his residence by offering flowers to the portrait of the Jana Sangh leader.

Speaking on the occasion, Chief Minister Dhami said, "Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya dedicated his life to the upliftment of the underprivileged, the poor, and the marginalised sections of society. His teachings and ideals continue to inspire us even today."

The Chief Minister further added, "Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya's philosophy and the concept of Antyodaya serve as guiding principles for the state's development policies. The state government is consistently working to ensure that the benefits of central and state schemes reach the last person in society."

BJP National General Secretary (Organisation) B.L. Santhosh, Rajya Sabha MP and State BJP President Mahendra Bhatt, MLA Khajan Das, and other public representatives were also present during the programme.

Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya (1916-1968), a prominent political thinker, economist, and leader of the Bharatiya Jana Sangh, is remembered for his philosophy of Integral Humanism (Ekatma Manav Darshan). He led the Bharatiya Jana Sangh from 1953 to 1968 and became its president in December 1967.

A dedicated organiser and leader, Upadhyaya also pioneered the monthly magazine Rashtra Dharma, the weekly Panchajanya, and the daily Swadesh. His thoughts on integral humanism, social justice, and self-reliance continue to guide the BJP in its mission to serve the nation.

His 109th birth anniversary provided an opportunity for leaders across the country to reaffirm their commitment to his ideals and honour his enduring legacy in Indian politics.

The Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation (MoSPI) is organizing the 29th Conference of Central and State Statistical Organizations (CoCSSO) on 25th and 26th September, 2025 at Chandigarh.The conference serves as a major forum for coordination between Central and State Statistical Agencies, with the objective of ensuring reliable, timely, and credible statistics for planners, policymakers, and the public to support evidence-based decision-making. COCSSO has played an important role in strengthening Centre–State coordination since 1971. The theme of this year's COCSSO is 'Strengthening Local Level Governance'. The conference has brought together around 350 participants from more than 30 States/ UTs Departments [Planning, DES & Statistical Organizations]; Central Ministries/ Departments, experts from various other national & international organizations such as Indian Statistical Institute (ISI), Indian Agricultural Statistics Research Institute (IASRI), Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR), international organisations such as World Bank, UN agencies and other stakeholders to deliberate on strengthening statistical systems for evidence-based governance and achieving the vision of Viksit Bharat.

The 29th COCSSO was graced by distinguished dignitaries including Shri Nayab Singh Saini, Chief Minister of Haryana; Rao Inderjit Singh, Union Minister of State (Independent Charge) of the MoSPI, Ministry of Planning and the Ministry of Culture and Shri Bhawani Singh Pathania, Deputy Chairman, State Planning Board, Govt. of Himachal Pradesh. Dr. Saurabh Garg, Secretary, MoSPI; Shri Anurag Rastogi, Chief Secretary, Govt. of Haryana, and Shri K. A. P. Sinha, Chief Secretary, Govt. of Punjab, set the context for the conference through their addresses in the inaugural session. Nayab Singh Saini, Chief Minister of Haryana, in his inaugural address, highlighted the pivotal role of data in effective governance and nation-building, citing examples from Haryana's data-driven initiatives for targeted service delivery, transparency, and citizen welfare. Highlighting the need for strong collaboration between Centre and States, he stated- "Government is incomplete without data - any scheme is effective only when it is backed by reliable statistics".

HSNCB seizes 15 grams of heroin, arrests trafficker near Bastada Toll Plaza

SHIV KUMAR SHARMA
KARNAL: As part of the ongoing campaign to make Haryana a drug-free state, the Haryana State Narcotics Control Bureau (HSNCB), Karnal unit, achieved another success. Acting on a tip-off, the team apprehended a drug trafficker near Bastada Toll Plaza, Gharaunda (GT Road), and recovered 15 grams of heroin from his possession. Under the strict guidance of Bureau Chief and Director General of Police, O.P. Singh, IPS, decisive action against drug traffickers is being carried out across the state. The DGP emphasized, "Eradicating the roots of drug abuse is our highest priority, and no laxity will be tolerated." This arrest reflects the bureau's commitment to a drug-free Haryana. The operation was conducted under the supervision of SP Mohit Handa, IPS, and DSP Manoj Kumar. During patrol, SI Vinod Kumar and his team received the tip-off. After verifying the information, the police strategically apprehended the suspect. Following proper legal procedure, a gazetted officer was present during the search, leading to the recovery of 15 grams of heroin. The arrested individual is a resident of Panipat district.
