Prime Minister Narendra Modi will hold a road show in Bhopal city this evening at 7 pm. During this time, he might also address the voters. 30 IPS officers, including the Bhopal Police Commissioner, are monitoring the arrangements of the Prime Minister. For Modi's security arrangements, SPG comman-dos will be deployed in three security circles.

A team of SPG officers from Delhi has reached the capital to handle the security arrangements of the Prime Minister's program. SPG, along with Po-Commissioner Harinarayan Chari Mishra and district administration officials on Monday took stock of the security arrangements on the major roads of the city by testing their efficiency. During this time, a convoy of more than 50 vehicles was seen on the road. Around 2000 police personnel will be deployed from Roshanpura intersection to Old PHQ Chowk. A mock drill was also done on Monday.

done on Monday.

SPG commandos will remain in three layers - a plan has been made to change the route for the program day. Policemen deployed in different areas have been instructed to check all the points continuously. For the security arrangements of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, special commandos of SPG will be deployed in three security circles. ployed in three security circles. Apart from this, local police officers will be present in the security circle outside. road

The route of the show will be monitored with drones.

While BJP has started preparations for Modi's program, the police and administration are also busy making arrangements. Following the alert from intelligence agencies regarding the security of PM Narendra Modi in Bhopal, additional arrangements are being made here. Police have been deployed at railway stations, bus stands and urban borders in all four directions. Every suspect coming to the city is being chucked.

Congress opposed the inclusion of children

Congress MP Vivek Tankha and Election Commission work in-charge JP Dhanopia have complained to the Election Commission that the Model Code of Conduct is in effect in the country for the Lok Sabha elections. On Wednesday, a road show of BJP leader Prime Minister Narendra Modi is being organized in Bhopal in favor of the BJP candidate. In the said road show, the ruling BJP is pressurizing the students by issuing orders over phone to the officials of government and private schools, colleges and universities. Orders are being given to involve students in road shows, which is contrary to the guidelines of the Election Commission of India and is a clear violation of the Model Code of Conduct. Congress leaders have demanded the Commission not to implement this order.

Old assembly route fixed

On this day, before the road show in the capital Bhopal, PM Narendra Modi will address public meetings in Sagar and Harda. He will come to Bhopal in the evening. Extra vigilance is being taken regarding the se-curity of PM Narendra Modi in Bhopal. BJP had earlier prepared three routes for the PM's road show. After inspection of all three routes, the Old Assembly route was decided. The road show will start from the statue of Lal Bahadur Shastri, right in front of the Old Assembly, which will go to Apex Circle via Roshanpura. More than 25 platforms will be set up on this route to welcome the PM. Before this, PM Narendra Modi had also done a road show in Jabalpur.

Security check of all the routes included in the program of Prime Minister Narendra Modi has been done. A team of 30 IPS officers, along with ADG Chanchal Shekhar, has been deployed to continuously monitor road show. Additionally, additional police personnel have been called and deployed from nearby districts.

First-Year MBBS student dies of suicide

Bhopal; In a tragic turn of events at Chirayu Medical College in Bhopal, a first-year MBBS student was discovered dead in her hostel room on Monday morning, prompting an investigation by local authorities.

Initial reports from police officials indicate the absence of a suicide note within the room. The Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) team has meticulously examined the premises, with the student's laptop and mobile phone seized for further analysis. Investigators are currently perusing call records to ascertain the last individual the student communicated with.

The victim, identified as 22year-old Rani More, hailed from Dhasal village, Jhirka tehsil, Khargone district, and was pursuing her MBBS degree at Chirayu Medical College.

The tragic discovery was made when the student failed to emerge from her room on Monday morning, despite the usual routine. Concerned, the hostel warden attempted to make contact but received no response. Subsequently, staff members were alerted, and upon entering the room, they were met with the distressing sight of the student's lifeless body suspended from the ceiling fan by a scarf fashioned into a noose.

Police were promptly notified, and the student's body was transferred to Hamidia Hospital's mortuary pending further procedures. A post-mortem examination is scheduled for Tuesday, awaiting the arrival of the deceased's rela-

This heartbreaking incident has sent shockwaves through the college community, prompting reflection and support for those affected by the loss.

Dumper strikes family on bike; biker dies, wife and child hospitalized

In a heartbreaking incident late on Sunday night, tragedy struck a family in Bhopal as a speeding dumper collided with their bike on the Arif Nagar bridge. The impact claimed the life of the husband, Faizan Khan, while his wife, Saman, and their 2-and-a-halfyear-old son sustained injuries, according to police reports. The fatal collision occurred around 12:15 am during the intervening hours of Sunday and Monday.

Faizan Khan, a 24-year-old painter, was returning home with his family after dinner at his in-laws' place when the accident occurred. The dumper, traveling at high speed,hit their bike on the Arif Nagar bridge, causing catastrophic consequences. Despite efforts to save him, Khan succumbed to his severe injuries at the scene, succumbing to excessive bleeding.

Saman and their son were immediately rushed to the hospital for medical treatment. Eyewitnesses attempted to apprehend the dumper's driver, but he managed to escape, leaving the vehicle behind. Incensed by the tragedy, some bystanders damaged the dumper in frustration. The police have initiated an investigation and registered a case against the unidentified driver responsible for this devastating incident.

Devotees celebrate Hanuman Jayanti with devotion and fervour

Bhopal: The city of Bhopal came alive on Tuesday as devotees thronged temples, participated in religious processions, and indulged in communal feasts to celebrate Hanuman Jayanti with unwavering devotion and zeal. The streets echoed with chants of hymns, resonating the spiritual significance of the occasion.

The jayanti of Maruti Nandan Hanuman ji was celebrated with great pomp. Shri Bajrang Mandir Pampapur Harsh Vardhan Nagar has entered its 90th year. Akhand Ramayana and Hanuman Chalisa were recited in the temple. The temple was decorated with balloons and Hanuman ji was consecrated and decorated with gold.

Along with this, 201 kg Prasad was offered. Temple priest Pandit Lokesh Sharma told that the Hanuman temple built by Aghoris, situated amidst the forests since the Nawabi period, has entered the 90th year. Bhandara was organized in the evening. Scores of devotees, clad in traditional attire, lined up outside temples across the city since the early hours of the morning, eager to offer prayers and seek blessings from Lord Hanuman, the epitome of strength and devotion in Hindu mythology.
