ENVIRONMENTAL AND SOCIAL POLICY

ENVIRONMENTAL AND SOCIAL POLICY

Aavas Financiers Limited is committed to high Environmental and Social (ES) Standards in its business and will continue to develop its investment decision making processes and procedures so as to reflect the requirements of Indian ES legislation, as well as relevant international standards (specifically IFC Performance Standards) as applicable to our housing finance and MSME business lines.

This Policy should be read in the context of other Policies that Aavas has developed and implemented (and in particular Aavas' commitment to ethical and lawful business as described in our Code of Conduct).

In performing their functions, the directors, senior management and employees of the Company shall:

- Consider and apply Indian Environmental and Social Laws and norms (including those that relate to occupational health and safety and employment) in their decisions about whether and how to offer credit to borrowers
- Consider and apply, where possible and as appropriate, international ES standards (including IFC Performance Standards) and norms which would deliver material beneficial impacts to borrowers
- Ensure that Aavas' Exclusion list of prohibited activities is consistently applied across our credit and loan decisions
- Proactively support women's economic empowerment and broader gender equality opportunities in our lending activities
- Ensure that Aavas' operations avoid discrimination based on race, caste, gender and other factors
- Proactively consider how Aavas can support more energy and water use efficiency in its lending business
- To apply the expectations above in our own operations (including employment terms and conditions, occupational health and safety, WEE and gender parity for employees and in the design and operation of our physical assets and offices

In addition, the directors, senior management and employees of the Company shall develop its client-facing processes and procedures to reflect the requirements of NHB's client protection legislation, and shall adhere to best practice, aligned with SMART's client protection principles, by:

- Continuing to deliver appropriate product design and delivery, ensuring care is taken to design products and delivery channels based on client needs, and in such a way that they do not cause harm, and keeping in view of our clientele;
- Preventing client over indebtedness by reviewing credit performance, monitoring systems and policies on an ongoing basis, and by sharing credit information to centralised credit bureaus;
- Promoting transparency by communicating clear, necessary and timely information in a manner and language clients can understand so that clients can make informed decisions. This includes disclosure of full fees and interest to the customer;

- Setting responsible pricing, terms and conditions in a way that is affordable to clients, is appropriate and proportionate to delivering investor returns and maintains the sustainability of the financial institution;
- Fair and respectful treatment of clients, seeking to continually improve client relations and adhering to the NHB's Fair Practice Code;
- Considering and applying, where possible, international industry good practice around privacy of client data, and complying with local data laws; and,
- By applying timely and responsive grievance mechanisms for complaints and problem resolution for clients, using these mechanisms both to resolve individual problems and to improve products and services.

Further, while funding for the growth of Aavas' housing loan portfolio for economically weaker sections (EWS) and low-income groups (LIG), particularly for women borrowers, Aavas will

- apply prohibited investment activities list as annexed in Annexure I;
- exclude all projects that will have adverse environment and social safeguards impact as mention in category A and B of Annexure II;
- ensure that investments abide by applicable national laws and regulations;
- comply with the ADB's Safeguard Policy Statement (SPS) (ADB's Safeguard Policy Statement);
