

Aavas Financiers Limited

Social Bond Utilisation Report

Introduction

Aavas is a Jaipur (Rajasthan) headquartered housing finance company, which primarily provides housing loans in rural and semi-urban areas. Company is present in 12 states and 1 UT, with a network of 321 branches and AUM of Rs.13,089 Crore as on December 2022.

The typical borrower profile of the company includes low-and-middle income self-employed & salaried customers in semi-urban and rural areas, individuals/ enterprises involved in basic and essential economic activities like grocery shop, dairy product, garment shops, saloons, services such as drivers, carpenters, electricians, and plumber etc.

Aavas business model has been woven around a sustainable fabric. In line with the guidelines for United Nations for governments, NGOs and private companies, the business of Aavas is linked with 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The core of Aavas comprises SDG 11 on Sustainable Cities and Communities. Company's business of affordable home loans to the low-income and middle-income groups is in direct alignment with SDG target 11.1 - of ensuring access to adequate, safe and affordable Housing for All. This proves that company's business is not only an economic catalyst but socially relevant as well.

Aavas SDG commitment coupled, with operating discipline, has been responsible for business sustainability in 11 years of its operations. At a time when servicing the documented customers would have been easier, Aavas selected to service the mortgage financing needs of the unserved, underserved and undocumented. At a time when it would have been easier to stay within an urban comfort zone, Aavas provided affordable housing finance to the middle- and low-income groups across rural and semi urban India. At a time when it would have been easier to fund male members, Aavas engaged with women and empowered them through home ownership.

The result is that Aavas do not see its role only as mortgage finance providers but as social catalysts helping build an equitable society.
