NHCE : DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES HOSTS SEMINAR ON PERSONAL FINANCE BASICS

The Department of Management Studies, New Horizon College of Engg organised a seminar aimed at enhancing students' understanding of personal finance. The session, titled Introduction to Personal Finance Basics, was conducted by Mr Salman Quraishi, who provided attendees with crucial insights into personal financial management. The seminar's primary goal was to equip participants with practical knowledge to effectively manage their finances and make informed financial decisions.

The seminar began with a comprehensive introduction to key personal finance principles, such as budgeting, saving, debt management, and setting achievable financial goals. Mr Quraishi engaged the audience with real-life examples, making these concepts easy to understand and apply.

Key Topics Covered: Equity Investment,

Investment for Beginners, Importance of Insurance, Mutual Funds

The session concluded with an interactive Q&A, allowing students to clarify their queries and gain further insights into personal finance strategies.

The seminar offered an invaluable experience for students, providing a strong foundation in personal financial management. The department extends its sincere thanks to Professor Shalini SN and Dr Rose Kavita, Head of the Department, for their efforts in organising and facilitating the event.
