PDP CHIEF MEETS J&K L-G FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 5 YEARS

Mehbooba bats for bringing Kashmiri Pandits back to Valley

NAVEED IQBAL
SRINAGAR, JUNE 2

FORMER JAMMU and Kashmir Chief Minister and Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) chief Mehbooba Mufti on Monday called on Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha to bring focus on the “return and rehabilitation” of Kashmiri Pandits to the Valley.

This is the first one-on-one meeting between Mehbooba and Sinha since the latter took oath as the lieutenant governor of the Union Territory five years ago. Highlighting that any political process will remain “incomplete” without the return of the Kashmiri Pandit community, Mufti said: “It is a moral imperative and a societal responsibility to ensure that our Pandit brothers and sisters, who were tragically displaced from their homeland, are provided with the opportunity to return in a manner that is dignified, secure and sustainable”.

Stating that their return is a collective responsibility and not just that of the government alone, she presented a paper to the LG at the Raj Bhawan Monday detailing efforts that the ruling dispensation could take for the return of Kashmiri Pandits.

Mufti called Sinha's response to her presentation “positive”, saying that he had promised to go through the document and “implement what he can”.

The move from Mufti comes a day before the Mela Kheer Bhawani, at the Kheer Bhawani temple in Central Kashmir. The annual festival attracts hundreds of Kashmiri Pandits to the valley. In the document, Mufti states that reintegration must be both materially grounded and socially sustainable, requiring a multi-tiered and inclusive approach.

“The return of displaced individuals must be anchored in a sense of security for government employees who play a critical role in rebuilding community confidence,” she said.

‘Is it so difficult to be patriotic?’ Khurshid after remarks backing end of Article 370

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, JUNE 2

CONGRESS LEADER and former External Affairs Minister Salman Khurshid on Monday said it was “distressing” that while he is abroad on a “mission against terrorism”, people “at home” are “calculating political allegiances”. The Congress leader's comments come days after he backed the abrogation of Article 370, prompting the BJP to target his party that holds a nuanced position on the issue.

“When on mission against terrorism, to carry India's message to the world, it's distressing that people at home are calculating political allegiances. Is it so difficult to be patriotic?”

Khurshid said in a post on X during a visit to Kuala Lumpur as part of an all-party delegation to rally support for India's war against terror emanating from Pakistan.

He later told news agency ANI: “People keep saying, ‘what are you doing in a delegation where there are people from BJP. What are you doing there?’ What are we doing here? We are doing here is, what is needed for the country. No matter which party you are from, today what is needed is a single voice to speak in favour of the nation and that is what we are doing here.”

“I think when I say, is it so difficult to be patriot? — that is the question to be asked of those who are putting out tweets and saying things that I think I believe are not very encouraging when you want to do something for the nation.”
