Public demands urgent safety measures on route such as speed-breakers

LOKMAT NEWS NETWORK

In a major accident, a cement container truck (AP-39-Y-0366), operated by KTC Company, overturned on the Bhokar-Himayatnagar stretch of the Chandrapur-Nanded National Highway in the early hours of Sat-

According to the sources, the truck lost control while attempting to give way to a speeding vehicle and plunged nearly 100 feet before toppling over. The incident took place around 4 am.

> Social worker rescues trapped driver

Social worker Vamanrao Patil, who was passing through the area at the time, noticed the crash and rushed to the scene. Patil rescued the driver trapped inside the heavily damaged cabin. The driver miraculously escaped with minor injuries.

The accident has once again highlighted the serious safety issues plaguing the newly-constructed highway. Despite improved connectivity, the stretch remains hazardous due to the lack of basic safety infrastructure such as speed breakers and lane dividers at key junctions.

Residents and local activists are renewing calls for immediate action from the National Highway Authority, urging the installation of essential safety measures to prevent further tragedies.

"Drive cautiously and never assume the other vehicle will make the right move," Patil advised, reflecting on the dangers faced by

High-profile sex racket busted

West Bengal woman rescued, two apprehended, one under probe

n a major crackdown, Anti-Human (AHTU) led by assistant police inspector Varsha Vhagde raided a high-profile prostitution racket operating from a residential apartment in the India Bank Colony on Jalna Road on Saturday. One woman and one agent were arrested, while a woman from West Bengal who was being forced into prostitution was rescued.

Another woman, Mumtaz Nasir Shaikh of Gevrai, has also been named in the case for supplying women but has not been arrested yet.

Investigations revealed that the accused operated the racket from a rented apartment. Mahesh Chandane transported the victims to Shakuntala Raut's flat using his auto-rickshaw (MH-23-AR-0509), while Mumtaz Shaikh supplied the women.

A case has been registered at the Shivajinagar Police Station. Both Shakuntala Raut and Mahesh Chandane have

Repeat offenders

It has come to light that both Raut and Chandane are repeat offenders. In 2021 and 2022, similar cases had been registered against them at the Shivajinagar Police Station. The raid was conducted under the guidance of superintendent of police Navneet Kanwat, additional SP Sachin Pandkar, and efforts by police inspector Devidas Ghat, AHTU in-charge API Varsha Vhagde, ASI Sanjay Suravase, constables Ashok Shinde, Pradeep Yewale, and women constables Anita Mane and Manisha Kharmate.

Tension prevailed in Pathri on Saturday afternoon after the enraged relatives of a deceased woman staged a protest at the local police station, demanding the immediate arrest of the driver involved in a fatal hit-and-run case. The deceased has been identified as Shantabai Baburao Jadhav (55), a resident of Hadgaon village in Pathri tehsil.

According to reports, on May 13, she was severely injured after being hit by an iniaentiiiea venicie wnose driver fled the scene. Shantabai was initially admitted to the District Civil Hospital and later shifted to the Nanded Civil Hospital due to the severity of her injuries. She succumbed to her injuries on May 30 while undergoing treatment. Following her death, her

Boy drowns in Godavari river

According to sources, Kharad had gone to the river with a friend for a swim. He entered the water but failed to return, prompting panic among locals. Fishermen from nearby areas rushed to the spot and began a search operation. After nearly two hours of effort, Kharad's body was recovered from the river.

Basavaraj Patil is Latur rural BJP president

Latur: The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) on

Saturday announced key disahead of the upcoming local strengthen its grassroots organisation. Former MLA Babeen appointed BJP district while Ajit Patil Kavhekar will head the BJP Latur City unit. Basavaraj Patil, a former Congress leader who recently joined BJP before the Lok Sabha elections, is expected to bolster the party's rural presence in Latur. For the post, he was selected over contenders such as former ZP vice-president Rahul Kendre, Sanjay Devre, and Ramchandra Tiruke. Ajit Patil Kavhekar, former BJP City Youth Wing president, has been active in urban politics. Despite demanding the Assembly ticket from Latur Urban, the party had fielded Dr Archana Patil Chakurkar against Congress MLA Amit Deshmukh, causing discontent among his supporters. There were speculations about his possible shift to Shiv Sena (Shinde), but his appointment signals reconciliation. Other appointments were made in Parbhani Rural, Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar City, Nanded North, Nanded South, Beed, and various Mumbai districts. These changes are part of BJP's strategic push to energise the cadre and im-
