State budget for FY 2025-26 reflects the priorities and aspirations of Haryanvis: CM

BUREAU CHANDIGARH, MARCH 24

Haryana Chief Minister, Sh. Nayab Singh Saini while addressing a press conference held on Monday said that the state budget for the financial year 2025-26 is a reflection of the priorities and aspirations of the people of Haryana. To fulfill these aspirations, the budget includes a commitment to complete 90 of the Sankalp Patra's promises within this year. So far, the government has fulfilled 19 of the 217 commitments in the Sankalp Patra, and work is ongoing on 14 others.

Cabinet Ministers, Sh. Krishan Lal Panwar, Sh. Vipul Goel, and Sh. Krishan Kumar Bedi also remained present during the press conference.

The Chief Minister, while making a mention of the 'Sankalps' made in the budget 2025-26, said that to make Haryana 'future-ready', a new department called 'Department of Future' will be created. Additionally, the Haryana AI Mission will be established, and AI hubs will be set up in Gurugram and Panchkula. Women farmers will be provided interest-free loans of up to Rs. 1 lakh to establish dairy farms. Besides this, a new Model Sanskriti School will be opened within every 10 km radius, and one government Model Sanskriti School in each district will be developed into a Centre of Excellence in Sports, shared Sh. Nayab Singh Saini.

The Chief Minister further shared that a bill to curb the sale of counterfeit seeds and pesticides is introduced in the ongoing Vidhan Sabha session. Moreover, this year's budget includes a commitment to organizing the 'Haryana Math Olympiad' every year for students in classes 10 to 12. Medal winners in the World Skills Olympiad will be awarded cash prizes of up to Rs. 10 lakh. Day-care centers for cancer patients will be established in 17 districts. The number of MBBS seats in the state will be increased from 2,185 to 2,485, and 10 new Integrated Manufacturing Townships (IMTs) will be developed in the state, informed Sh. Nayab Singh Saini.

He said that under the 'One District One Product' scheme, 10 new industrial clusters will be created. Gig workers will be provided with insurance coverage. An urban drainage fund of Rs. 100 crore will be established in cities. A sports complex will be constructed in each municipal area. All old landfill sites will be 100 percent cleaned. Every city will witness the transformation of an old market into a smart market, and every village will see the revitalization of one street as a smart street, informed Sh. Nayab Singh Saini.

The Chief Minister said that under the 'Mhara Gaon Jagmag Gaon scheme', 5,877 villages are already receiving 24-hour electricity. A new scheme will be launched for the remaining 1,376 villages. Besides this, under the PM Surya Ghar: Muft Bijli Yojana, the target is to install 2.22 lakh solar rooftops by March 31, 2027. So far, 15,000 homes have been fitted with 2 kW solar rooftops.

Director General, Information, Public Relations, Languages and Culture Department, Sh. K Makrand Pandurang and Media Secretary, Sh. Praveen Attrey also remained present.

Cow dung and cow urine will become medium to save ancient culture and health

SHIV KUMAR SHARMA KARNAL, MARCH 24

Efforts are being made from Karnal to save the cow breed and make the cow herders self-reliant. Now idols of God, Vandana, Pooja garlands, incense sticks, Shiv's form along with other art works will be made from cow dung. Cow product manufacturing campaign is being started under Gau Utpad Swavalambi Project with the inspiration of Gau Mayi Swavalambi Yatra in Seva Bharti campus of Karnal. Under this, a fifteen-day training programme for women is going on from March 9. Trainers have come from Nagpur in Maharashtra to train selected women of the state. This training is being led by Tarun Jain from Jagadhri. Materials of daily use are being made from cow dung and urine. These women will go all over the state and train women. Not only cow milk, curd and ghee will be used, but cow dung and urine will also become a means of livelihood for people. The main objective behind this is to save the cow breed. This training programme is being conducted under the supervision of Surendra Goyal of Seva Bharti. Sachin and Ashish from Maharashtra said that they started this campaign in the tribal areas of Nagpur and Vidarbha.

Through this, the tribals were to be made economically strong. At the same time, they were to be saved from the vicious circle of Christian missionaries and brought closer to Sanatan culture by connecting them with cow conservation. Now they have given training in various parts of the country including Delhi, Punjab, Madhya Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, Rajasthan, Punjab. He said that for this, the dung of those cows is used which are not tied and neither are they given chemicals. Through this campaign, rural women will be made financially self-reliant. Training will be given to make these products: He told that during the training, 12 types of cow urine extract (for different diseases), 9 types of Ghanvati (for different diseases), Pit-tashamak Churna, Black Toothpaste, Plain Toothpaste, Phenyl from cow urine, Designer camphor sticks from cow dung.

Decorative items from cow dung, Memento from cow dung, Garland from cow dung, Anti radiation mobile back cover from cow dung, Diya from cow dung, Rakhi from cow dung, Name plate from cow dung, Anti radiation mobile stand, Toran from cow dung, Sambrani cup from cow dung, 6 types of incense sticks from cow dung, Idols from cow dung, Samidha/wood from cow dung, Pots from cow dung, Aromatic energy lamp from cow dung, Agnihotra and Bali Vaishnava Yagna kit from cow dung, Mobile charging stand from cow dung, Clock from cow dung, Cow dung throne, Cow dung stool, Cow dung photo stand, seed balls from cow dung and big sized cakes from cow dung, kitchen from cow dung, colour paints, plaster from cow dung for personal use, badge (batch) from cow dung to be worn on chest.

OTS will free taxpayers from old financial burden: Dr Ashok

SHIV KUMAR SHARMA KARNAL, MARCH 24

A transparent and equitable taxation system is essential for economic prosperity and good governance. If the tax system is simple and effective, then traders, entrepreneurs and investors benefit and economic activities grow rapidly. Regarding this, the Nayab Saini government of Haryana has launched 'One-time Settlement Scheme-2025'. BJP District Media In-charge Dr Ashok Kumar said that this One-time Settlement Scheme-2025 scheme will provide great relief to thousands of taxpayers, especially small shopkeepers, entrepreneurs and traders. This scheme will give an opportunity to make a new beginning by freeing the taxpayers from the old financial burden. He said that the 'One-time Settlement Scheme-2025' scheme is for those taxpayers of Haryana, who could not pay the outstanding amount of their taxes due to some reason. Under this scheme, taxpayers with outstanding amount up to Rs 10 lakh will get a rebate of up to Rs 1 lakh.

Giving further information, he said that this scheme will be open for the next 180 days i.e. 6 months. He appealed to the taxpayers to pay their dues as soon as possible and said that the state government had started the Dispute Resolution Program to solve the problems of people of all sections, under which various departments have started schemes with different names to solve the problems. One Time Settlement Scheme-2025 is also a part of the same series. The objective of the government to start this scheme is not only to collect taxes but to accelerate development through a fair tax system. This scheme will not only increase the revenue but will also strengthen the trust of the people in the government.

Inauguration of waste paper recycling plant at Dyal Singh college

CHAMAN LAL KARNAL, MARCH 24

Dyal Singh College took a significant step towards environmental sustainability by inaugurating the Waste Paper Recycling Plant. The event was inaugurated by Vice Admiral Satish Soni (Retd.), General Secretary, Governing Body, Sarabjit Singh Sukhija, Regional Manager, and Mr. Abhishek Ranjan, Branch Manager, State Bank of India graced the occasion as special guests. Vice Admiral Satish Soni (Retd.) expressed his heartfelt gratitude to the State Bank of India for their generous financial support extended for setting up this recycling plant. He termed this contribution as an important step in promoting environmental awareness and sustainability, which would be extremely beneficial for the students and teachers.

Dr. Ashima Gakkhar, Principal of the college informed that understanding the urgent need for environmental protection, 'Prakriti: The Eco Club' proposed the establishment of a waste paper recycling/handmade paper manufacturing unit, which was successfully implemented. This initiative is a revolutionary step in waste management, which converts discarded paper and cotton cloth pieces into handmade paper, thereby reducing dependence on forest resources and promoting a clean environment.

It will help in fulfilling the objectives of Swachh Bharat Mission, which promotes cleanliness, waste management, and environmental responsibility. This project can also provide internship opportunities to the students in the field of sustainable development. Apart from this, students will be motivated to understand the entrepreneurial and business aspects of this project, which will help them develop a spirit of innovation and self-reliance in the field of green business.

Kaithla Khurd village declared TB free on World TB Day

DALBIR MALIK KURUKSHETRA: Today, on the occasion of TB Day, Dr. Anamika, Nurse Rajrani and Pawan Kumar from the Health Center declared Kaithla Khurd village as TB free village while giving a memento and a letter of appreciation to Master Baldev Singh Saini, Sarpanch of Kaithla Khurd. Dr. Anamika told that World TB Day is celebrated every year on March 24. This day is observed to make people aware of the disease and to help the infected needy. It is also held to remember the achievements made towards controlling TB. World Tuberculosis Day raises awareness about the devastating health, social and economic consequences of TB and advances efforts to end the global TB epidemic. This day marks the day in 1882 when Dr. Robert Koch discovered the TB-causing bacterium.

Tuberculosis or TB is a disease caused by bacteria called Mycobacterium tuberculosis. Bacteria can attack any part of the body, but usually attacks the lungs. Village Kaithla Khurd's Sarpanch Master Baldev Singh Saini expressed gratitude on behalf of the village panchayat to Dr. Anamika and other staff from the health centre expected from the health workers that they should keep making the villagers aware of other diseases in the village from time to time.
