CM Dhami attends closing ceremony of 'Swarnim 70 Years' in Haridwar

AGENCY
HARIDWAR, JUNE 22

Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami on Sunday attended the closing ceremony of "Swarnim 70 Years" organised by Bharatiya Mazdoor Sangh Uttarakhand in Haridwar.

The officials and youth of the Mazdoor Sangh welcomed the Chief Minister. Dhami inaugurated the program by lighting the lamp. A large number of youth were also present in the program. He has also participated in the youth worker conference.

Yesterday, Uttarakhand made history by becoming the first state in India to implement a dedicated Yoga Policy, following its pioneering efforts in introducing the Uniform Civil Code.

The Pushkar Singh Dhami-led cabinet approved this landmark initiative, aiming to establish Uttarakhand as a global hub for yoga and wellness.

The Yoga Policy has been prepared with the aim of establishing Uttarakhand as the global capital of yoga and wellness, under which a subsidy of up to Rs 20 lakh is being provided for developing yoga and meditation centres in the state.

A provision of grants up to Rs 10 lakh has also been made to promote research in the field of yoga, meditation and naturopathy in the state.

With the inspiration of the Prime Minister, the state government has implemented the country's first Yoga Policy 2025 in the state.

The Chief Minister further stated that the state government is determined to establish five new yoga hubs in the state by 2030 and by March 2026, the availability of yoga services will also be ensured in all AYUSH Health and Wellness Centers in the state.

The CM also planted an apple tree in the Vidhan Sabha premises under the 'Ek Vriksha Yoga ke Naam' program.

During this, the Chief Minister announced that the state government would soon establish one Spiritual Economic Zone each in Garhwal and Kumaon divisions to promote Ayurvedic and Naturopathy, Yoga and Spiritual Tourism in the state.

He further stated that two new towns would be established in the hilly areas of the state, which would establish the special identity of the state on the global map by becoming the center of Yoga, Ayurveda and Spirituality.

Haryana to emerge as logistics powerhouse: CM Saini

DALBIR MALIK
KURUKSHETRA, JUNE 22

Chief Minister Nayab Singh Saini on Saturday inaugurated the PM Gati Shakti Cargo Terminal at the newly developed Inland Container Depot (ICD) in Dhirpur, Kurukshetra, declaring it a milestone in building a developed Haryana and India. He affirmed that the day is not far when Haryana will rise as a new force in the logistics and supply chain sector, boosting prosperity for farmers, entrepreneurs, and traders, while opening new avenues of employment for the youth. The terminal has been developed by Saraf Group of Dubai, whose investment, Saini said, reflects a strong confidence in Haryana's economic policies and business-friendly environment, and signals the deepening economic ties between India and the UAE.

The CM stated, "This is not merely the inauguration of a modern facility; it's a step toward empowering Haryana's capabilities and its youth. It is a bold and visionary move that will script a new chapter in the state's economic journey."

The state-of-the-art logistics hub, spread over 18 acres, offers custom clearance, warehousing, and cold storage services under one roof, previously accessible only in metro cities. The reduction in logistics costs by 20–30% and time savings, he said, will enhance the competitiveness of Haryana's products in international markets. Saini added that Saraf Group is also operating a 115-acre multimodal logistics park in Palwal, with another 30-acre transshipment hub in Rewari. He credited former Chief Minister Manohar Lal for approving this project during his Dubai visit, which underscored the 'Ease of Doing Business' philosophy that Haryana is pushing beyond boundaries by actively reducing business costs and promoting skilled human resource exports through the Department of Foreign Cooperation.

Admin should pay attention to shortage of DAP and other fertilisers in district

JAGRAJ SINGH SANGHA MOGA: Today, in a special interaction held by farmers at the district office of Bharatiya Kisan Union Lakhawal, District President Bhopinder Singh Daulatpura and Member Punjab Harnek Singh Fatehgarh Korotana and District Media Incharge Balkaran and people from different blocks of Moga district have demanded from the district administration that there is a severe shortage of DAP fertilizer and other fertilizers in the district. Wherever DAP fertilizer or urea fertilizer is being obtained, corporate houses and private firms are looting the farmers blindly. Along with DAP fertilizer and urea fertilizer, nano bottles or any other material like feed etc. are being given, which is a complete blow to the farmer. In this way, the farmer is being looted. The farmer is already struggling with economic recession. On top of this, the farmers are very upset with the loot being done due to the negligence of the government officials. On this occasion, Prem Lal Puri, District Vice President Gurmial Singh Drolhi Bhai, District Leader Balkaran Singh Dhillon, Parkash Singh Office Incharge etc. were present with him.

Adopt Yoga in daily life to stay disease-free: MLA Kabirpanthi

Punjab woman sold for Rs. 4 lakh, roamed streets of Oman for two months

ARVIND PATHAK SULTANPUR LODHI: A young woman from Jalandhar district, Punjab, fell victim to human trafficking after she traveled to Oman in search of a job due to her family's dire financial condition. Shockingly, it was her own sister-in-law who colluded with an agent and sold her for 4 lakh. Once in Oman, the woman faced severe physical abuse, inhumane treatment, and constant threats to her life. Her eventual return to India became possible through the timely intervention of Rajya Sabha MP Sant Balbir Singh Seechewal. Sharing her harrowing ordeal upon returning home, the survivor said she endured a great deal out of helplessness. However, things became unbearable when she was assaulted without reason. She revealed that she was forced to work long hours without rest, was denied her salary, and barely given food to eat. When she resisted the abuse, she was threatened with death and coerced into activities against her will. After somehow escaping the grip of exploiting family, she wandered the streets of Oman for nearly two months with no support or shelter. She also disclosed that around 20 other girls—mostly from Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, and Punjab—are still living in similar hellish conditions in a park in Oman, their lives constantly under threat.

Haryana govt should take strict steps to eliminate criminals: Garg

SUMER GARG
HISAR, JUNE 22

An urgent meeting of business representatives was held under the chairmanship of Bajrang Garg, Provincial President of Haryana Pradesh Trade Board and former chairman of Haryana Confed. While expressing serious concern over the increasing crime in Haryana, Mr. Garg said that traders, industry and general public in Haryana are living in the shadow of fear as the incidents of ransom, monthly, looting and murders are happening in routine and the government has proved to be a complete failure to stop crime in Haryana. He said that Sonapat, Jind, Kurukshetra, Hansi, Palwal, Rohtak, Gurugram, Faridabad, Panipat, Narwana, Karnal, Sirsa are becoming common places of killing traders, looting and the demand of ransom has increased. The contractors of alcohol, mining, sand and builders are afraid of taking contracts of their respective work. Whenever a notice of tender was published, contractors started to receive calls from criminals for the ransom. Garg said that the government has proved to be a complete failure in Haryana to maintain law and order situations. The gangs of criminals are being operated from jails and they were asking for ransom and monthly on mobile, from which, it clears that the jail administration is with the criminals.
