CM Dhami launches 'Viksit Krishi Sankalp Abhiyan' in Dehradun

AGENCY DEHRADUN, MAY 30

Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami launched the "Viksit Krishi Sankalp Abhiyan" in Guniyal village, Dehradun, on Thursday.

According to an official release, the Chief Minister said that during the campaign, agricultural scientists and officials will communicate with farmers in 95 development blocks, 670 Nyaya Panchayats and 11440 villages of the state.

Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami said that, from May 29 to June 12, more than 2000 scientific teams will communicate with 1.5 crore farmers in more than 700 districts across the country under the campaign.

For this campaign, three teams have been formed in each district of the state, which will organise programs at three places every day. More than 600 farmers will be communicated with in each such program. The Chief Minister said that through the "Vikasit Krishi Sankalp Abhiyan," farmers will be given information about advanced agricultural techniques according to their land, climate, and needs and trained to select profitable crops based on soil testing.

In addition, information about schemes like agriculture, animal husbandry, and horticulture will be provided. The campaign will also compile the experiences, innovations, and suggestions of the farmers, which will make scientific research more practical in the future.

The Chief Minister said that this campaign will prove to be a milestone in taking our state's agriculture sector to new heights through modernity and innovation and in empowering and enriching our food providers.

The Chief Minister said that under the visionary leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, India is moving rapidly towards realizing the resolution of 'developed nation'. Continuous efforts are being made by the Central Government to double the income of our food providers. On the one hand, financial assistance is being provided to 11 crore farmers across the country through "Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samman Nidhi Yojana.

Ceasefire announced without consulting armed forces, says CM

DINESH AGARWAL SHIMLA, MAY 30

Addressing the 'Jai Hind Sabha' at Shimla today, Chief Minister Thakur Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu paid heartfelt tributes to the brave soldiers of Himachal Pradesh and the Nation. He said, "Today is a day to salute the sacrifices of our brave soldiers who have laid down their lives for the country. Sharing a recent experience, the Chief Minister mentioned his visit to Sharchi village in the Tirthan Valley, where he stayed at the home of former soldier Subedar Major Anoop Ram. The Chief Minster stated that Anoop Kumar discussed with him about the 1971 India-Pakistan war and he recalled how the address of the then Prime Minister Indira Gandhi instilled patriotic zeal and boosted the morale of the Indian Army. The outcome of that war was historic and India split Pakistan into two, and Shimla later became the witness to the landmark Simla Agreement, he said. Sukhu said that the valour of the soldiers of Himachal Pradesh was unmatched. "Our soldiers never hesitated to sacrifice their lives for the Nation. Himachali soldiers have the honour of being decorated with Four Param Vir Chakras, which is a testament to the state's legacy of courage and sacrifice," he added.
