AJAY MALHOTRA
FATEHGARH SAHIB: Sri Guru Granth Sahib World University achieved a remarkable academic milestone with the release of the 2025 Special Issue of its UGC-CARE listed international peer-reviewed research journal, 'The Journal of Religion and Sikh Studies'. The publication reinforces the University's expanding global footprint in scholarly research.

Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor Prof. (Dr.) Prit Pal Singh, while unveiling the issue, expressed immense pride, stating that the journal has carved out "a distinct and respected identity in global academia," reflecting the University's unwavering commitment to research excellence and intellectual advancement.

The newly launched special issue, dedicated to the British Colonial Era, comprises fifteen meticulously reviewed research papers. These scholarly works delve into diverse themes, including religious reforms, political developments, cultural revolution, linguistic shifts, social change, literary trends, and judicial transformations during colonial rule. Dean Academic Affairs Prof. (Dr.) Sukhwinder Singh Billing highlighted that this is the fourth consecutive special edition focused on an in-depth analysis of British colonial history—an initiative that continues to draw contributions from reputed scholars across Punjab, various Indian states, and international academic institutions. Chief Editor Dr. Hardev Singh, Dean of the Faculty of Sri Guru Granth Sahib Studies, emphasized that the journal adheres strictly to UGC's global academic and ethical standards. Its Advisory Board and peer-review team include distinguished scholars.

Civil lines residents seek flood relief measures and park upgrades

ANIL VERMA
BATHINDA That civil lines colony is prone to flooding in rainy season. During the rainy season rain water enters many houses and causes heavy financial losses. A storage tank has been built in the premises of Civil Lines Club and pump has been installed by the Municipal Corporation to lift the rain water and put it in main pipe line but the water from side of Hazi Rattan, Sabzi Mandi and Rajindra college enters Civil Lines colony floods the houses. It is requested that a pump should be installed in Hazi Rattan Area to lift this water and put it in main pipe so that this water does not enter Civil Lines colony. It is brought to your kind notice that there is very less lighting in park number 33 situated in Civil Lines. In this park the ladies and children visit in the evening but due to very less light in the park and it is difficult to walk and play. It is therefore requested that more lights should be installed in park. It is requested that the wall, grill and walkway in the park should be repaired and painted. It is requested that one meeting Hall of 15 by 20 feet should be got constructed in the park so that residents can read newspapers and do meetings of the colony.

Experts Call for Urgent Soil Rehabilitation Strategies at National Conference on Land and Water Management

LUDHIANA: Punjab Agricultural University (PAU) brought together leading scientists and policy experts for a high-level panel discussion on "Rehabilitation of Flood-Affected Soils" during the national conference on "Land and Water Management for Ecological Restoration and Agricultural Sustainability." The session was chaired by Dr S.S. Gosal, Vice-Chancellor, PAU, while Dr J.K. Singh and Dr A.S. Dhatt served as co-chairs. Renowned experts, including Dr T.B.S. Rajput, Dr Rakesh Sharda, Dr Rajiv Sikka, Dr J.P. Sharma, and Dr Arya, highlighted urgent measures required to restore soil structure, fertility and water-holding capacity affected by flooding, erosion, sedimentation, and nutrient leaching. They underscored the need for targeted soil testing to assess nutrient losses, especially nitrogen and phosphorus, and stressed interventions such as desilting of dams, increased storage capacity, erosion-control structures, and early-warning systems for flood-prone regions. They urged farmers to integrate these recommendations with soil rehabilitation practices. "As we face intensifying challenges such as droughts, floods and degradation of fertile land, we must come together to act now," said Dr S.S. Gosal, Vice-Chancellor, PAU. Dr A.S. Dhatt, Director of Research, noted, "Soil conservation is not just an environmental concern — it is directly tied to global food systems, water security and human well-being." Speaking on flood impacts, Dr Manmohanjit acknowledged that while floods may temporarily redistribute nutrients, they generally cause far greater harm than benefit to long-term soil health. He emphasised that durable solutions.
