CM Dhami leads Tiranga Yatra ahead of Independence Day

AGENCY DEHRADUN, AUG 13

Ahead of the Independence Day, Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami on Wednesday led the Tiranga Yatra from Gandhi Park, Dehradun, with public representatives, thousands of youth, students, women and children holding the tricolour in their hands with the echo of 'Bharat Maa Ki Jaikar, Vande Mataram'.

The CM encouraged the people present, especially the youth. He also launched the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' campaign scheduled to take place from August 13 to 15. The Chief Minister led the Tiranga Yatra amidst the tunes of patriotic songs. The CM greeted the youth and also wished everyone a Happy Independence Day in advance. CM Dhami said that the tricolour is a living symbol of our freedom, unity and rich cultural heritage. The Chief Minister urged all the citizens of the state to hoist the tricolour with full respect and pride at their homes, establishments, workplaces and institutions on this Independence Day. "Remember and pay homage to the immortal fighters who sacrificed their lives for independence," he said. CM Dhami said that the Tiranga Yatra is not just a journey, but also an opportunity to express gratitude to Mother India, freedom fighters, martyred soldiers, brave women and the great sons of India. The Ministry of Culture,

Government of India, on August 11, announced the 4th edition of the Har Ghar Tiranga campaign, launched under the aegis of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, to inspire citizens across the nation to bring the Indian National Flag, the Tiranga, into their homes and hearts.

Union Minister for Culture and Tourism Gajendra Singh Shekhawat said, "This year, we are going to celebrate the fourth edition of the Tiranga campaign, for which more than 5 lakh youths have registered as volunteers. These youths will inspire people for the Tiranga campaign."

Addressing a press conference, Shekhawat said, "Har Ghar Tiranga is more than a campaign -- it is an emotional movement that unites 1.4 billion Indians under the timeless colours of our National Flag.

Severe and exemplary punishment must be given to perpetrator of hate crime against sikh elder in USA: Jathedar Gargaji

SRI AMRITSAR (CHARANJIT SINGH ARORA): Giani Kuldip Singh Gargaji, Officiating Jathedar of Sri Akal Takht Sahib and Jathedar of Takht Sri Kesgarh Sahib, strongly condemned the brutal hate attack on 70-year-old Sikh, S. Harpal Singh, in North Hollywood, California, USA. He stated that the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) and American investigative agencies must ensure the accused person receives a strict and exemplary punishment. Jathedar Gargaji said it is essential to understand the intent behind the attack and that it should be recorded as a hate crime.

According to information, S. Harpal Singh was walking near Satcoy Street and Lankershim Boulevard when an individual attacked him with a golf club, inflicting severe injuries. He is currently battling for his life in hospital. A suspect has been apprehended by the LAPD and the police must reveal his motive behind this attack. Jathedar Gargaji noted that, according to the FBI's 2024 hate crime report, while hate crimes against Sikhs in the USA have slightly decreased, Sikhs remain the third most-targeted religious group, which is a grave concern. The FBI report records 153 hate crime incidents against Sikhs in 2024 alone. He stressed the urgent need for collaborative efforts worldwide, including in the USA, to raise awareness about Sikh identity in order to curb such attacks.

He noted that nowhere in global history has it been seen that someone willingly approaches their oppressor to sacrifice their life for another's faith. "This unparalleled act is the legacy of our Guru Sahib," he said. He urged the audience to draw inspiration from Guru Sahib's martyrdom and shun negative thoughts.

DC launches mobile rural mart to boost marketing of women's Self Help Groups' products

SHASHI PA L JAIN MOHALI, AUG 13

Deputy Commissioner Komal Mittal today launched a Mobile Rural Mart to promote the sale of food products prepared by the Mahila Ekta Food Producer Company, an organisation comprising 25 Women's Self Help Groups (SHGs) in SAS Nagar.

Expressing gratitude to NABARD for extending financial assistance of Rs 1.37 lakh towards the Rs 2.37 lakh project, the DC said the initiative will enable the women entrepreneurs to market their products in urban areas such as Mohali and Kharar. Highlighting the success of Bhaina Da Farm—an FPO formed by SHGs and active for the past four years—she said that the biggest challenge for women-led SHGs has been access to marketing opportunities, which this mobile mart will help address. The DC directed ADC (Rural Development) Sonam Chaudhary to explore similar innovative marketing models for other high-performing SHGs in the district.

Lead District Manager M.K. Bhardwaj assured continued support from the banking sector for such rural empowerment initiatives.

ADC (G) Geetika Singh, Ms Deepika (President, NGO Mahila Kalyan Samiti), and members of the SHGs were also present on the occasion.

Excelsior Public School students present glimpses of patriotism

BATALA (VERMA): Excelsior Public School (Senior Secondary) commemorated India's 79th Independence Day with fervent patriotism and joy, presided over by Principal Monica Kapoor. Areen House orchestrated a magnificent event where students and teachers alike participated enthusiastically.

The celebration commenced with students performing stirring patriotic songs, igniting a sense of national service in all attendees. This was followed by a series of cultural presentations that vividly portrayed India's struggle for freedom through dance, drama, and poetry. A particularly moving moment was a drama depicting the Jallianwala Bagh incident which deeply affected the audience and served as a poignant reminder of the sacrifices made. Young children also recited poems honoring brave martyrs, filling the air with a wave of patriotism. A highlight of the event was Ases Kaur from Class 1, who, dressed as Colonel Sofia Qureshi, delivered a powerful poem on 'Operation Sindoor', earning special commendation from the Principal. The Class 5 students captivated everyone with their energetic Legion dance.
