Punjab govt should immediately compensate flood-affected farmers: Deol

SARBJOT SINGH SANDHA KHADOOR SAHIB: The floods caused by the rising water level in the Beas River, in which thousands of acres of paddy crops in Goidwal Sahib, Mankadeka, Bhel, Mundapind, Gujarpura, Gharka and many other villages were destroyed by the flood water. The government should immediately conduct a special Girdawari of this entire area and provide compensation, these views were expressed by Charanjit Singh Deol, District President of the Indian Farmers Association, while talking to selected journalists. Deol said that this large area of the Mand area of Tarn Taran district of Majha, whose crops have been completely destroyed, has caused great loss to the farmers. He said that this is the time when saints, great saints and devotees of different sects are helping the people trapped in these floods. At this time, the government should also fulfill its duty and immediately provide compensation to the farmers.

Villagers submit memorandum to Subhash Kalsana demanding road construction

GOLDY CHUGH SHAHABAD: Residents of Tangori and Jharoli Khurd villages in Shahabad Assembly constituency submitted a memorandum to BJP leader Subhash Kalsana, urging the construction of a long-pending village road. The villagers said that the 1.75-kilometre stretch from Jharoli Khurd to Tangori has remained unpaved since the beginning, turning into slush during the rainy season and severely disrupting movement. Farmers and schoolchildren, they added, face the greatest hardships due to the poor condition of the road. The villagers pointed out that the route is the main link for local commute and plays an important role in the development of the panchayat area. They requested that the road be concretised at the earliest. Assuring the villagers, Subhash Kalsana said that the process to construct the road would begin soon and their longstanding demand would be fulfilled. Among those present on the occasion were Moti Ram, Karnail Singh, Advocate Mandeep Rawa, Balkar Singh, Lakhwinder Singh, and Gurwinder Singh.

Swift action by administration saves precious life of septuagenarian farmer in flood-hit village

ARVIND PATHAK SULTANPUR LODHI: The district administration's flood rescue teams demonstrated remarkable efficiency and dedication by saving the life of 78-year-old farmer Balwinder Singh in Mand Bhandu Kadaam village on Saturday morning. The septuagenarian experienced uneasiness and chest pain amid flood conditions, prompting a swift response from the administration following a distress call around 7 am on Saturday. The rescue team promptly evacuated Balwinder Singh from the flood-affected area and transported him to a medical camp in Lakh Variya village in ambulance. After receiving primary treatment for high blood pressure and other symptoms, he was shifted to Sultanpur Lodhi Civil Hospital for further care. According to Civil Surgeon Dr. Harpal Singh, the patient is now stable, with his condition steadily improving. Gurdas Singh, the son of Balwinder Singh, expressed heartfelt gratitude to the administration, stating, "The quick help provided by the rescue teams saved my father's life. The family is deeply thankful for their efforts, he added.

Annual Sant Samagam and grand kirtan darbar concludes at Seva Panthi Dera Santpura

RAHUL KOHLI YAMUNANAGAR, AUG 23

The annual Sant Samagam and grand kirtan darbar, held in memory of departed saints at Seva Panthi Dera Santpura, concluded with great devotion and splendour. Thousands of devotees thronged the dera, filling the premises with an atmosphere of faith and spirituality.

Sharing details, Mahant Jagmohan Singh said that the event at Seva Panthi Dera Santpura has, for centuries, been a centre of devotion for followers. Lakhs of devotees from across the country and abroad visit to bow before the Lord. The main highlight of the congregation was the maun vrat (vow of silence), considered a special path of spiritual discipline and connection with the divine. Devotees participated with enthusiasm and experienced peace of soul. On the final day, August 23, religious preachers like Giani Pinder Pal Singh, Bhai Sukhwinder Singh Dardi, and Bhai Harpal Singh shed light on the teachings of the Gurus. Devotional singers including Bhai Anoop Singh from Una, Bhai Gagandeep Singh from Ganganagar, Bhai Sarabjit Singh Rangeela from Durg, Bhai Harjinder Singh from Srinagar, and Bhai Surender Singh and Nachhattar Singh from Darbar Sahib Amritsar enthralled the congregation with soulful kirtan and Gurbani. The kirtan darbar concluded with a special ardas, after which saints from distant places blessed the devotees. Throughout the event, the message was repeatedly conveyed that true peace and contentment in life can only be attained by chanting the name of the Almighty. Alongside local followers, devotees in large numbers also arrived from Punjab, Haryana, Delhi, Uttar Pradesh, and Rajasthan.

Compassion for drug addicts, zero tolerance for drug traffickers - a right step by Punjab police

VERMA GURDASPUR, AUG 23

Today, a delegation of Shiv Sena Balasaheb Thackeray, Bhagwa Sarna, and Sanatan Kranti Dal met with DIG Border Range Dr. Nanak Singh under the leadership of Harvinder Soni, State Vice President of Shiv Sena Balasaheb Thackeray and MP representative. The delegation highly appreciated the anti-drug campaign being conducted under the leadership of DGP Gaurav Yadav. On this occasion, Harvinder Soni, Rajinder Sahdev, Saurabh Gupta, Ravi Dhunna, Harjinder Sareen, Karan Puri, Jagjeevan, Vishal Sharma, Hardeep Sharma, and others honored the DIG by presenting him with a bouquet. DIG Dr. Nanak Singh stated that a large-scale campaign has been launched by Punjab Police under the directives of Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann and DGP Gaurav Yadav to combat drugs in Punjab. He emphasized that the policy of Zero Tolerance is being strictly implemented — even if a police officer is found involved in drug selling, supporting traffickers, or using drugs, strict action is taken without exception.

He further stated that the aim is to make Punjab drug-free and fulfill the dream of a "Rangla Punjab." He stressed that public support is essential in this fight. Under this campaign, many major drug traffickers have been arrested, sent to jail, and their properties have been either demolished or confiscated — and this drive will continue until Punjab is completely drug-free. The Hindu leaders present on the occasion pledged their full support in this battle against drugs. They urged the DIG to ensure that no officer shows leniency towards drug dealers, even under political pressure, and that the identity of whistleblowers is kept completely confidential.

They also praised the Punjab Police's rehabilitation policy for drug-affected youth, stating that such efforts prevent social rejection and offer addicts a positive path to recovery.
