Attempts made to defame Kanwar Yatra, but they failed: CM Dhani

AGENCY
DEHRADUN, JULY 21

Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhani on Sunday said that certain elements attempted to defame the Kanwar Yatra, but their efforts were unsuccessful due to the administration's vigilance and timely intervention.

Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhani on Sunday said that certain elements attempted to defame the Kanwar Yatra, but their efforts were unsuccessful due to the administration's vigilance and timely intervention.

"In the initial days, some people tried to defame the Kanwar Yatra, but due to the alertness and prompt actions of the administration, no untoward incidents occurred," Dhani stated while addressing the media in Dehradun. Calling the yatra a sacred pilgrimage, CM Dhani said it holds deep spiritual and cultural significance for millions of devotees who travel on foot to bring holy water from the Ganges for Lord Shiva. "This is not just a journey; it is a symbol of devotion and faith. Some people want to malign it by creating unnecessary controversies. But their intentions will never succeed," he asserted.

The Chief Minister praised the coordination between police, district officials, and volunteers, crediting their efforts for maintaining law and order throughout the pilgrimage route. He also appreciated the discipline shown by the Kanwariyas and their respect for local guidelines. "The government is committed to ensuring the safety and dignity of every pilgrim. This year's peaceful conduct of the yatra is proof that Uttarakhand is fully prepared to host such large-scale spiritual events," Dhani added.

CM Dhani offers Prayers to Lord Shiva on second Sawan monday

DEHRADUN: Even amidst heavy rains, on the second day of Sawan, there is a flood of devotees in Shiva temples across the state. Since morning, there are long queues for darshan at Darida Bhajan Mahadev Temple, Daksheshwar Mahadev and Tilbandeshwar Shivalayas located in Kankhal, Shiva's in-laws' house. Devotees of Bhole Baba are anointing Lord Shiva by offering Belpatra, milk and water. Pandit Krishna Kumar Shastri said that the second Monday of Sawan has once again brought the message that faith has immense power and the essence of life is in the devotion of Bholenath. Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhani also worshipped Devadhidev Mahadev by anointing him in the Shivalaya located in the CM residence on the second Monday of Sawan. Along with this, Chief Minister Dhani prayed to Lord Shankar for the happiness, peace of all the people of the state and the progress of the state.

Ground water depleting alarmingly due to misuse : Dr Virender Chauhan

PRADEEP MEHTA
NILOKHERI: The government commitment to deliver tap water to every house was not endowed with the reach of water. The government is also committed to ensure the supply of pure water. Director of Haryana Rural Development Institute, Dr. Virendra Singh Chauhan made this comment while addressing a meeting of the Drinking Water and Sewerage Committee of Old Nilokheri Gram Panchayat. He said that where the availability of water was the primary requirement for life then it was necessary to maintain the purity of water for a healthy life. Dr. Virendra Singh Chauhan, who met the villagers under the awareness campaign being run on the subjects related to drinking water by the Public Health Department, said that the level of ground water in many development blocks in Haryana has gone down speedily. The main reason of this was completely unaccounted misuse and mismanagement of ground water. This subject required a widespread public awareness. He called upon the villagers that they also avoided polluting ground water. In his address, the director of Haryana Rural Development Institute called upon the villagers to work unitedly to resolve the problems of the village. The Chief Chemist, Public Health Department Kunwar Amit Singh called upon not to use water in vain on the occasion.
